

CoreSysFederal
Simplifying I.T.

Overview

CoreSys Federal is a Woman-Owned Small Business (WOSB) working primarily within the Federal Government and US Department of Defense. CoreSys Federal leadership has over thirty years of experience in project planning, execution, and maintenance of Information Technology (IT) systems. We provide experience and expertise in a variety of soft and hard IT skills, such as business analysis, business intelligence, database administration and software development.

Domonique Basler – President & COO

Domonique is responsible for the daily operational activities of CoreSys Federal. As a seasoned executive, Domonique has worked within the government contracting industry for over 20 years with specialties in project management, subject matter expertise, business intelligence, organizational design, and process improvements.

Domonique lives in Virginia with her husband, an Active Duty Servicemember, and her 2 wonderful children.

About CoreSys Federal

- CoreSys Federal was founded in 2011
- CoreSys Federal, as a member of Team SAIC, has supported HRC under various contracts since its inception
- CoreSys Consulting and CoreSys Federal are closely linked and share many corporate resources

Example of Government Contracting Goals

- Small Business – Goal 23%
- Women – Goal 5%
- Small Disadvantaged Businesses – Goal 5%
- Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Businesses – Goal 3%
- HUBZone – Goal 3%

Support to AFCEA

- 5 x Women in AFCEA Luncheon Sponsor
- AFCEA Golf Tournament Team and Hole Sponsor

Questions?